

Providence Community Opportunity Corporation

The Providence Community Opportunity Corporation's (PCOC) mission is to provide and maintain high standards of living through programs and services that promote self-sufficiency, economic independence, educational opportunities, as well as enhance and enrich the quality of life for the public housing and Section 8 residents of the PHA.

2021

FINANCIAL OVERVIEW

	2018	2019	2020	2021
Revenue	$17,871	$11,579	$15,037	$34,228
Expenses	$20,754	$14,534	$8,414	$23,266
Net Income	-$2,883	-$2,955	$6,624	$11,092
Assets	$45,852	$39,948	$46,702	$60,536

Core funding for FY 2021 came from grant-making and PHA employee contributions.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Funding for technology provided youth participants in the Workforce Immersion Program with ChromeBooks

The Emergency Food Box program provided elders with essential food support during Covid isolation

Youth Police Initiative (YPI) engages youth with our partners at the Providence Police Department.

Food Pantry - provides the support needed for Parenti Villa Food Pantry operations.

Resident Events - Holiday parties, May breakfasts, and Strong Families Day

PCOC BOARD MEMBERS

- Nicolas Retsinas, President
- Thomas Ryan, Vice President
- Linda R. Poole, Treasurer
- Peter Asen, Secretary
- Jessica Cigna, Director
- Lawrence D'Alfonso, Director
- Roger Giraud, Director
- Melissa Sanzaro, Director